

Looking for work online

Most large employers now only recruit online via their own website and smaller firms tend to accept CVs, use in-house application forms, use local or online recruitment agencies or advertise by word of mouth. The websites listed below are some of the highly popular choices of Jobcentre Plus claimants. Job seekers should search online for individual company recruitment websites (i.e. Asda, Next, Sainsbury's etc), set up an account and apply!

TIP: Search the app store as most of these now have free apps.
